Canyon High Homecoming Opens Thursday at 7 p. m.

Homecoming activities will begin at 7 p. m. tomorrow for ex-students of Canyon High School.

A bonfire and pep rally west of the high school will launch the two day activities. Flame Queen and Flame King will be crowned at the bonfire.

Candidates are Ross Bond and Bernice Green, senior class; Rony Marsalis and Gayle Rogers, junior class; Lavonne Patterson and Joe Triplett, sophomore class; and Karen Brewster and Jess Sheets, freshman class. Selection of the royal couple will be on the basis of which class collects the most wood for the bonfire.

The Canyon Volunteer Fire Department will stand by during the event.

Exes of Canyon High School and West Texas High School will be registered all day Friday. The two schools were consolidated into Canyon High School years ago.

Open house will be held all day Friday at the high school. The Future Teachers of America will be in chage of registration. Coffee and cookies will be served by the Future Homemakers of America in the homemaking department living room.

A special assembly will be held at 2:30 Friday afternoon in the high school auditorium. Presented by the speech class, the program will contrast old and new. Homecoming Queen candidates will be presented.

Candidates are Mayla Atkinson, Melba Haile, Joyce Ricketts, Jeanne Whinnery, all seniors, and Wilma Burkett, junior.

Miss Atkinson is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Strauss Atkinson and has been Basketball Queen and a member of Junior Who's Who. Miss Burkett, the daughter of Mrs. J. D. Burkett, was Harvest Queen and was a Homecoming Queen candidate last year.

The daughter of Mrs. Lorena Haile, Miss Haile has been Football Queen and a member of the Junior Who's Who. Miss Ricketts, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Ricketts, has been a candidate for Halloween Queen and Fall Festival Queen.

Miss Whinnery has been the FHA Girl of the Year and is the senior class secretary. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Whinnery.

The student body will elect the queen in a secret ballot Thursday morning, but the result will not be announced until a sealed envelope containing the winner's name is opened during the coronation ceremonies at the half of the Tulia-Canyon football game.

Larry Kitchens, president of the student body, will crown the queen.

At 8 p. m. in Buffalo Stadium, the Canyon Eagles and the Tulia Hornets will tangle in a conference game. Tulia's conference record stands at one win and one loss. The Hornets topped Friona 21-18, but lost to Dalhart 33-0. Canyon, in its only conference start, beat Dalhart 21-18.

Preceding the game, a snake dance will be held at 7 p. m. from Taylor and Sons store to the stadium.

A dance, to be held in the all-purpose room of the Canyon Grade School, will follow the game.

George Cristy is in charge of Homecoming activities.

General Election Is Tuesday

Polls will open at 8 a. m. Tuesday in 15 Randall County precincts for the 1958 general election, with state and county officers up for election and some national candidates. The ballot includes nine proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution. Polls close at 7 p. m.

Absentee balloting ends on Oct. 31, Friday. Up to noon Tuesday, only six absentee ballots had been cast in the county clerk's office. Any voter who expects to be out of town on election day may obtain an absentee ballot at the clerk's office.

The ballot, measuring 11 inches by 23 inches, has five columns for candidates. The first column on the left is the Democratic column, with a candidate for each office. The second column is the Republican column, with candidates for only four offices.

The Constitution party has the third column, with nine candidates. The fourth column is for independents, none of which filed, and the fifth column is for write-ins.

Democratic candidates are Price Daniel for governor, Ben Ramsey for lieutenant governor, Will Wilnal district attorney, and John Dorsey for county surveyor.

Voters in Commissioners Precinct 1 will vote on justice of the peace with Carl Anderson as candidate. Those in Commissioners Precinct 2 will vote for county commissioner with Clarence Beckman as candidate; and those in Commissioners Precinct 4 will vote for county commissioner with C. Y. Johnson as candidate and justice of the peace with Mrs. W. J. Flesher as candidate.

The Republican column includes Edwin S. Mayer for governor, Roy Whittenburg for U. S. Senator, Grover C. Carothers for commissioner of agriculture and John Q. Adams for supreme court place 1.

Constitution party candidates are Phillip Lee Eubank for lieutenant governor, Muckleroy McDonnold for attorney general, Bard A. Logan for U. S. Senator, H. W. Vogan for commissioner of agriculture, W. C. Miller for land commissioner, Bert Ellis for state treasurer, Howard Bumbaugh for railroad commissioner, R. Glenn Florance for comptroller of public accounts and Ruben R. Lozano for judge of the court of criminal appeals.

Voters must scratch out all candidates they do not desire. In voting on the proposed amendments, the voter must scratch out the statement he does not favor in each of the nine cases.

A straight ticket may be voted by marking a line through each of the other four columns. Write-ins may be voted by scratching through all other candidates for the office, and writing in the name of the candidate.

A sample ballot has been posted in the window of The Canyon News for those who would like to see one before going to the polls. Copies of the nine amendments as published in August in The Canyon News are available for those who would like to study them fully.

FB Resolutions Adopted at Meet

A resolution that wheat price should be 90 per cent of parity and acreage allotments kept was adopted last Thursday by the Randall County Farm Bureau.

Vote came after a lengthy debate that included suggestions ranging from a two-price system—100 per cent of parity on wheat marketed domestically and the foreign market price on all overproduction—to a return to the free market of no acreage allotments and no price supports.

The wheat resolution, along with other adopted resolutions, will be sent to the Texas Farm Bureau convention in Corpus Christi Nov. 9-12 for consideration in adopting the state FB's policies.

Other major resolutions favored a cost share of weed and grasshopper control being included in soil bank payments and the law allotting money for the construction of farm-to-market roads being extended.

Resolutions opposing a nine-months school term and a compulsory realignment of commissioner's precincts in county government were adopted.

Delegates to the state convention will be uninstructed on whether the local FB favors a state income tax or a state sales tax.

Other resolutions covered the cotton program, milk producing standards and state and federal control of Johnson grass and bindweed along highway and railroad right-of-way.

A recommendation was accepted that the county Farm Bureau investigate the proposed county home-rule plan to see how the county unit stands on it.

Agents Attending State Meeting

Mrs. Mona K. Hildreth, home demonstration agent, and John Brazzil, county agent, are attending a Texas Agriculture Extension Service conference on the campus of Texas A&M this week.

Theme of the meeting is "Meeting the Challenge of the Changing Agricultural Situation."

They will return Saturday and be in their offices Monday.

HEART BOARD TO MEET

Randall County Heart Board will meet at 7:30 p. m. tonight at Don's Cafe, 110 23rd St. Donald W. DeRosen, area consultant, will be here to discuss and help plan the unit's work for the year.

Court Appeals Hearing Awards

Recommendations for appealing the condemnation commission awards to O. H. Dixon and Ray McReynolds were given the Randall County Commissioners Court Monday, and the court approved the recommendation.

Criminal Dist. Atty. A. W. Lair was asked to file notice of appeal of the awards.

Dixon was awarded $15,579 by the condemnation commission. He had been offered $11,809.

McReynolds was offered $11,132 and the condemnation commission award was $19,230.

The state highway department said the awards did not reflect "true market value" and should be appealed to county court.

Pete Styner, district right-of-way engineer, told the commissioners court that property owners who have traded with the county and who retained buildings or other improvements must remove those improvements by the date shown on the deeds.

Styner said that the deeds say that any property left on the right of way reverts to state ownership after that date, and owners should be careful to have it removed.

500 FTA'ers Seen For Annual Meet

Approximately 500 students from 22 Panhandle high school Future Teachers of America clubs are expected Tuesday at West Texas State College for their annual district convention.

The meeting is sponsored by WT's Student Education Association, which started the district convention as "FTA Day" about eight years ago.

Speaker for the day's affair will be Dr. Emmitt Smith, director of teacher education and student personal services at WT. Dr. Smith returned to WT this fall after a year's leave to serve as teacher training director for the Texas Education Agency.

Presiding will be Cindy Law of Amarillo High School, district president. She will be assisted by other officers who include Emily Ann Pavlicek of Hereford, vice president, Carolyn Keller of Wellington, recording secretary, and Charles Childress of Dalhart, financial secretary.

The convention also features a "Mr. and Miss FTA" contest, discussion groups, a talent show, and election of new officers.

World Community Day Set for Nov. 7

World Community Day will be observed with a covered dish luncheon at 11:30 a. m. Nov. 7 in the First Presbyterian Church. A nursery will be furnished.

World Community Day gifts will make possible the sharing of experience and know-how with women in the South Sea Islands and Pakistan to help Christian ideals operate in these countries. Training opportunities will be established to speed their participation in community life. New materials, rather than old clothing, will be the material aid offered those in need.

Balls of yarn and pieces of material will be collected for refugee mothers so they may knit and sew for their families while they await resettlement.

Decoration Fund Near Completion

About $400 is needed to provide enough Christmas decorations to go completely around the square and down Fourth Avenue to the museum, Chamber of Commerce Manager Roland Black said this week.

The chamber is accepting donations to purchase the decorations, and the fund has grown large enough to complete most of that stretch. The decorations will be of the type displayed on the pole in front of the chamber office, and will be lighted at night.

Any citizen wishing to donate to the fund may send their money to the chamber office, Black said.

Halloween CROP Drive Set Tuesday

Teen-age ghosts and goblins of Canyon are planning to trick or treat for overseas relief next Tuesday night under the sponsorship of the Canyon Christian Youth Council.

Replacing the usual trick or treat for candy, apples or other goodies, the members of various church youth groups will make house to house calls for donations to Christian Rural Overseas Program. Proceeds will send government surplus food overseas through Church World Service.

Conducted by young people's groups all over Texas this year, the trick or treat campaign is sanctioned by the Texas headquarters of CROP.

Canyonites Attend Episcopal Council

A number of Canyon citizens plan to attend the Primary Council to organize the Episcopal Diocese of Northwest Texas in Amarillo Friday.

In addition to the council, the Rt. Rev. George H. Quarterman will be installed as bishop of the diocese. The Rt. Rev. Henry K. Sherill, presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, will be guest of the diocese at the council and will be the installing bishop.

The Diocese of Northwest Texas was given permission to organize as a diocese by the General Convention of the Episcopal Church the first of the month. Prior to this year, the area has been organized as the Missionary District of Northwest Texas.

It is expected that the installation of Bishop Quarterman will be the last official act of Bishop Sherrill, who is retiring as presiding bishop of the church on Nov. 14.

The installation service, which begins at 7:30 p. m. in St. Andrew's Church in Amarillo, will be televised on KFDA-TV.

Among those attending from Canyon will be Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Glenn, Dr. and Mrs. T. D. MacOwan, John Kahler, Mrs. Frank Kimbrough, Mrs. Bill Henderson and Frank Kimbrough Jr.

Second Rattler Killed in Canyon

A three foot rattlesnake was killed on the sidewalk near the front porch of her home by Mrs. Dale Killingsworth.

The snake, which had six rattles, was sunning itself on the sidewalk when Mrs. Killingsworth returned from town. She killed it with a hoe.

Osce McCrerey of New York City killed a rattlesnake on the back porch of her father's home here earlier this month.

Duck Season Opens Nov. 1

Duck season opened Saturday, and from the way Game Warden Woody Pond talks, hunters will have plenty of ducks to shoot in the area.

At the same time, the season for snow geese and blue geese begins. The season for white-fronted and Canadian geese does not open until Nov. 16.

Pond said plenty of ducks have flying through, and many are stopping on lakes in the area. The lakes close to Canyon have little water, however, and hunters will have to go a little farther away.

Regulations on the season call for the duck season to last from Nov. 1 to Jan. 14, both days inclusive, with shooting hours from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset. Shooting hours are the same for geese, with the season closing on Jan. 14.

Pond said hunters should be careful not to shoot the wrong kinds of geese until the Canadian season opens Nov. 16. He said few snow geese and blue geese can be found here.

Bag limit on ducks is five, with no more than 10 in possession. Bag limit on geese is five and possession limit is five.

The duck bag limit must not include more than one wood duck, one hooded merganser and no more than (a) two canvasbacks or (b) two redheads or (c) one canvasback and one redhead.

In addition to the above daily bag and possession limits on ducks, hunters may have a daily bag limit of five American or red-breasted mergansers and 10 in possession.

The limit on geese shall not contain more than (a) two Canada geese or (b) one Canada goose and one white-fronted goose.

Hunters must have a state hunting license and a federal waterfowl stamp.

A meeting of the Babe Ruth League members will be held at 8 p. m. Tuesday at the West Texas State College fieldhouse.

Nov. 1-20 Designated as Period for Mailing Overseas Christmas Package

The period Nov. 1-20 has been designated for the mailing of Christmas parcels by surface mails to members of the Armed Forces overseas, according to Marion Higdon, postmaster.

December 1-10 has been slated as the period for airmail parcels.

Maximum weight is 70 pounds, except that a limit not exceeding 50 pounds applies to packages addressed to certain overseas destinations through Fleet Post Office, New York, N. Y. Length and girth combined may not exceed 100 inches, although smaller limitations apply to certain overseas destinations through New York.

All articles for overseas delivery must be packed in boxes of wood, metal, solid fiberboard or strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard. Fiberboard boxes should be securely wrapped in heavy paper and well tied with strong cord.

Boxes should contain sufficient cushioning material so that the content will be tightly packed to prevent any rattling or loosening of articles within the package. Unless completely packed and tightly filled, boxes are likely to be crushed. A slip showing list of contents and addressee should be enclosed in the parcel.

A customs declaration must be completed by the sender on some parcels.

In addition to the usual articles prohibited in the mails, matches or lighter fluid may not be mailed to overseas military addresses. Cigarettes, tobacco products and coffee are prohibited in parcels addresses to certain military post offices.

Domestic rates of postage are applicable and must be prepaid.

Air mail articles weighing over eight ounces are chargeable at the rate of 80 cents a pound.

Addresses must be legible and complete and should be in ink or typewritten.

Greeting cards for the Armed Forces overseas should be mailed within the periods designated for parcels for delivery prior to Christmas.

Cast for Branding Iron Play Given By Director; Run Opens Nov. 6

Cast for "The Lady's Not For Burning," first production of the fall semester for West Texas State College's Branding Iron Theatre, has been announced by Director William A. Moore. The poetic comedy will open Nov. 6 for a three-night run.

Heading a cast, most of whom are well accustomed to early English costumes and mannerisms, of veteran actors are Eddie Thomas of Amarillo and Marty Hinson of Groom. The two appear in the lead roles of Thomas Mendip and Jennet Jourdemayne.

Other roles include Richard, played by David O'Keefe of Amarillo; Nicholas, by Buck Ramsey of Amarillo; Margaret, by Verdi Knox of Canyon; the chaplain, by Scott Glenn of Borger; Tappercoom, by Billy Hodgson of Friona, Humphrey, by James Hinkley of Pampa; Hebble, by Leon Stephens of Dumas; and Alizon, by Patsy Altmiller of Darrouzett.

The Christopher Fry comedy of 15th Century England brings together in the cast at least six students who appeared in one or both of the Shakespearean comedies staged during the last year by the BIT. These were "The Merchant of Venice," which starred Thomas as Shylock, and "As You Like It," in which Miss Hinson played Rosalind. O'Keefe, Hinkley, Glenn, and Hodgson also had roles in those productions.

Robert L. Antrim, technical director for the BIT, has designed sets and costumes for "The Lady Is Not For Burning." Admission will be 25 cents for children, 50 cents for high school students, and 75 cents for adults and college students.

Fry's play, which deals with some of the early English foibles, fables and social oddities, was fisrt produced in England, and then enjoyed a long and successful run on Broadway with John Gielgud in the starring role. The story deals with a disillusioned soldier who wants to die, but cannot, and a young "witch" who must die but is not ready.

When the two meet in jail, the romantic element is injected into the story, but the romantic never over-rides the comical and farcical nature of Fry's writing.

The play will be given Nov. 6, 7 and 8, with curtain-time at 8:15 p. m. Reservations may be made through the speech department at WT for any of the three nights.

Eagles To Meet Tulia Here Friday

After a week layoff, the Canyon Eagles will play host to the Tulia Hornets in Canyon's homecoming game Friday night in Buffalo Stadium.

Tickets for the game are on sale at the Canyon Drug, The Pharmacy and at the high school.

The Eagles, despite their layoff, are weakened by illness and an injury. They are strengthened by the return of two players taken out of the lineup early in the season.

Mike Poole, offensive end and defensive halfback, is out of the lineup because of a head injury. Coach Bill Davis said Poole would most likely not play again this year. Center and tackle Howard Lisle has been sick the first two days this week, and has been at home in bed.

Returning to the squad this week are Larry Kitchens and Jackie Brietling. Kitchens broke his foot in the scrimmage game against Clovis before the season began. Brietling has been out the entire season because of a nervous condition, but his doctors allowed him to begin playing again.

Coach Davis said the return of the two players will help a lot, although neither is in top physical shape because of their long layoffs.

The Hornets now have a one-one district play record, having defeated Friona 21-18 and lost to Dalhart 33-0. The Eagles have a one-win record, downing Dalhart 21-18.

For the season, Tulia has a four-four record. Their wins have been over Memphis, a Class A school, Quitaque, a Class B school, Hale Center, a Class A school, and Friona, in District 1-AA.

The winning scores were 30-6 over Memphis, 40-0 over Quitaque, 42-18 over Hale Center and 21-18 over Friona.

Their losing scores have been 16-14 to Abernathy, 14-6 to Lockney, 20-0 to Floydada and 33-0 to Dalhart. The Tulia losses have all been to Class AA schools.

The Hornet stingers are Buzzy Poage, Duke Jennings and Byron Lewis. Poage has scored eight touchdowns, all on runs. The long runs have been 72, 66 and 38 yards.

Lewis has six touchdowns to his record, with two on passes. His longest scoring run was 28 yards. On one pass from Jennings, Lewis scored from 77 yards out. His other touchdown pass was from Jennings.

Jennings has five touchdowns, one on a 47-yard run and one on a four-yard pass from Ralph Bates Jr. Bates has one touchdown run and Bobby Howard has one.

Tulia runs from the single and double wing formations. The greatest majority of their running plays are sweeps around end and traps up the middle. They pass quite a bit, but not excessively.

Coach Davis said Tulia ran a little T-formation off an unbalanced line against Dalhart, but it was not successful. Their normal offense uses an unbalance line to the right.

The Hornet offensive line weighs an average of 169 pounds and the backfield averages 161. Their defensive line is beefed up part of the time with the addition of a 295-pound center guard, Dave Vickers.

Delinquent Tax Rolls

We have been aware for quite a while that some people do not bother to pay their personal property taxes to the county, school or city. And we knew in general that the delinquent rolls are fairly big.

But we weren't prepared for what we saw when we looked at the delinquent personal property rolls in the last few days.

The bare facts are that between five and seven or eight per cent of the value on the personal property rolls goes delinquent each year. And that at the end of the year, only about 10 per cent of the delinquencies are redeemed.

This leaves the total taxes due each of the three agencies quite large. For instance: About $18,000 goes delinquent each year on the Randall County rolls. And about $1800 is redeemed, leaving a balance of some $16,800 still due. The figures for the school district and city are lower because their tax rolls are smaller.

Personal property taxes, unlike real property taxes, are not collectable after four years. (Real property taxes go on and on, staying with the land, until they are paid in full.)

An inspection of the delinquent rolls shows the same names each year. And the same names show up on all three of the tax-agency rolls. It would create quite a shock and considerable unhappiness if the names of the delinquents were published. Some of the names belong to well-known people who generally enjoy a good reputation.

We look at the situation this way. The three governments should ask that the delinquents pay up, or institute suit to recover the back taxes. Or, if the three governments refuse, they should cease assessing personal property taxes.

We can think of no reason why the normal, law-abiding, self-respecting citizen should be assessed for personal property and pay year after year, and others should be let off. Remember, if the tax stays delinquent more than four years it is written off.

If everyone paid the personal property taxes each year, the county would have about $18,000 a year more, the city would have about $3,000 and the school about $8,000.

We believe that personal property tax suits should be filed soon, and that those taxpayers who refuse to pay up should be held up in the bright light of public opinion through publication of their names.

Tuesday's Changes

Here's a quick resume of the nine amendments to the Texas Constitution proposed in next Tuesday's election. For those who lost their copy, or who didn't have a chance to study the full text of the nine amendments, The Canyon News has extra copies of the issues with the amendments in them.

No. 1: Provides for annual sessions of the legislature, changes the compensation, per diem and travel expense of members, and authorized the temporary residence of the Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House in the Capitol.

No. 2: Authorizes each county to establish, after approval by its voters, a retirement, disability and death compensation fund covering the elective officers of the county or precinct, as well as the appointive officers and employes.

No. 3: Provides that vacancies in the office of County Judge or Justice of the Peace shall be filled by appointment of the Commissioners Court only until the next general election rather than for the unexpired term.

No. 4: Provides that any district, county or precinct official serving a four-year term must resign before announcing for a different office if there remains unserved more than one year of the term for which he was elected.

No. 5: Provides that a Home Rule City may provide by Charter revision, and a city operating under the general laws by majority election, for a longer term of office than two years for its officers, either elective or appointive, but the term must not exceed four years.

No. 6: Provides for pensions for retired Texas Rangers who are ineligible for participation in the Employes Retirement System of Texas, and their widows.

No. 7: Authorizes the legislature to make appropriations and establish procedure for advertising the historical, natural, agricultural, industrial, educational, recreational and other resources of Texas.

No. 8: Gives the Legislature the power to authorize vendor payments for medical care in addition to the amount paid in the form of direct public assistance for needy recipients of Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind, Aid to Dependent Children or Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled; providing for the acceptance of funds from the federal government for the purpose of paying such assistance.

No. 9: Authorizes the legislature to create hospital districts for Amarillo and Potter County, Wichita County, and Jefferson County. The voters of those areas must also approve in special elections.

Small Vote Seen

It's mighty easy to predict a small vote in Randall County for the general election next Tuesday. Not more than 4,500 we'd say.

The reason for the small vote is that people won't bother to go to the polls under the assumption that the candidates are already picked under the one-party system of the state. That's pretty near the truth.

But two things weren't settled in the Democratic Primary last summer. And both are good reasons why the people of Randall County should go vote.

The first is probably the more important. There are nine proposed amendments to the patchwork Texas constitution. Each of the nine will affect you in some way, mostly in the way of higher taxes at one level of government or another.

The second reason is that the number of delegates to the state Democratic party convention is based on the number of votes cast for governor in the general election. Each county has one delegate for every 300 votes for governor.

Thus, if Randall County has a 4,500 turnout and each casts a vote for Price Daniel, the county will have 15 delegates to the state convention. This year, because of the heavy vote in 1956, Randall County had 20 delegates. Only Potter and Hutchinson counties in District 31 had more votes than Randall.

But these reasons won't affect many peoples' minds, and we feel safe in predicting a total vote of 4,500 or less in the general election in Randall County.

Scratch, Don't Check

In the general election Tuesday, voters must use the old system of marking the ballot—and the system that is most satisfactory to our way of thinking.

In order to make your ballot acceptable, you must scratch out all those persons and proposals you disapprove. In the end, only those which you approve should be left unmarked.

If you plan to vote a straight Democratic ticket, you should scratch through all other columns and leave the Democratic column unmarked. On the amendments, you should scratch out either the proposal which begins with "For" or the one which begins with "Against." And you must do it for each of the nine amendments.

If you wish to write-in a candidate for any office, you must scratch through each of the names in the other columns for that office, and write the name of your favorite in the "Write-In" column.

Have a happy time scratching.

What Our Neighbors Say . . .

Scissor Snippings

Harold Hudson in the Ochiltree County Herald: We had an interesting program at the Methodist Men meeting Monday night—one which illustrated rather graphically how a rumor gets started. Dr. Roy Sanford conducted the program, which consisted of picking six men, sending them all out of the room but one, then flashing a cartoon on a screen and letting the one man look at it for two minutes. Then, one by one, the other five were brought in and each one heard their version as repeated by the first man. By the time the sixth man told the tale as he heard, it bore little resemblance to the truth.

Each man, as he repeated what was told him, changed the facts a little bit. These changes, of course, grew more exaggerated the more the story was told. Moral of the program was to point out to each man his responsibility toward repeating tales that he hears. Although this was a meeting for men only, the word "gossip" was used quite a bit and it is easy to see how gossip can spread and destroy a reputation while the gossip has absolutely no basis in truth.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By BOYCE HOUSE

Boyhood memories —

My grandmother (my father's mother) died when I was quite small. I remember that she had ear-lobes that had been pierced for ear-rings and when not wearing the ear-rings, she kept a bit of straw in the holes.

My grandfather's mother (actually my stepgrandfather's mother) was a little woman, who sat very quietly in a corner of the farmhouse and smoked a clay pipe.

Aunt Ida (my father's sister) baked the best cookies I ever ate. She kept a 10-gallon lard-can filled with them — or, rather, she tried to; but her two children, Karl and Lucille, plus my sister Vivian and I made terrific inroads each afternoon after school. The cookies were large and flat, a yellow hue with slightly-browned edges, and they were at once firm and yielding.

When I was small, I can remember that my favorite songs were "Throw out the life-line;" "Let the lower lights be burning, send a gleam across the wave" and "We shall come rejoicing, bringing in the sheaves." (I had no idea what a "sheave" was.)

Each season, a few days before a game — say Siwash versus Clementine — you will read that Siwash's coach moans, "We haven't got a chance. We used Clementine's plays in scrimmage with Zilks, third-string quarterback as the key man, and he was unstoppable."

What I would like to know is, that being the case — why doesn't Siwash's coach use the third-string quarterback in Saturday's game and, discarding his own plays, use Clementine's?

A man who had been a college professor lost his place because of drink. He became a teacher in a country school where he inspired one of his students with a love for literature, oratory and statesmanship. The student was William E. Borah, "the Lion of Idaho," for years one of the great members of the United States Senate. "God moves in mysterious ways — "

Don't expect to stay ahead of your bills if you allow them to do all the running.

Farm Bureau Sets Silver Convention

Randall County will be represented at the silver anniversary convention of the state's largest general farm organization — the Texas Farm Bureau. The meeting will be held in Corpus Christi Nov. 9-12.

Five local delegates to the convention will be selected in a Nov. 6 meeting of the Randall County Farm Bureau. Reservations for the delegates have been confirmed for the Nueces Hotel, headquarters for the meeting.

The convention will culminate in delegates casting their ballots for adoption, rejection or amendment of resolutions sent in by county Farm Bureaus. The bureau here adopted its county resolutions Thursday night.

A 39-member state resolutions committee will meet in Corpus Christi four days prior to the convention to draft tentative resolutions on scores of issues which have been sent in from county conventions.

Adopted resolutions on national issues become recommendations to the American Farm Bureau Federation convention which meets Dec. 7-11 in Boston.

A recognition program honoring counties for outstanding achievements will be held during the first general session Nov. 10.

Thirteen district queens will be competing for the 1958 Farm Bureau queen's crown. The winner will receive also $500 to attend the national convention.

John C. White, Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, will be one of the convention speakers.

Baptist Churches Join in Crusade

The Calvary Baptist Church and the First Baptist Church are among 13 churches in the Tierra Blanca Association that have agreed to participate in the 1959 North American simultaneous evangelistic crusade.

A recent extended survey by the state evangelism department showed that 3,515 of 94.8 per cent of the denomination's churches in Texas will be included in the movement.

"This is the first time that all major Baptist groups in North America have participated in such a drive. We hope the effects of this year of revival will be worldwide with prayer periods and crusades scheduled in many foreign countries," said Dr. C. Wade Freeman, superintendent of evangelism, Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Texas crusade dates are Jan. 25-Feb. 8, March 15-29 and April 12-26. Dates for the First Baptist Church will be April 12-26, according to the Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor. The Rev. Aaron Mann, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, has announced dates for April 12-19.

Theme for the simultaneous crusade is "New Life For You."

H-FA Releases Holstein Records

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has announced the completion of outstanding official production records by registered Holstein cows owned by Richmond Hales and Louis G. Hinders, both of Canyon.

The production records were based on twice daily milkings for 365 days.

In the Hales herd, Lilacvalley Ace Diana 3384001 produced 16,980 pounds of milk and 621 pounds of butterfat as a six-year-old, Waldup Triune Myrtle 3938587 produced 16,453 pounds of milk and 626 pounds of butterfat as a four-year-old and Lilacvalley Peggy Ace 3945955 produced a total of 14,090 of milk and 529 pounds of butterfat as a three-year-old.

In the Hinders' herd, Tierra Blanca Carnation Piebe 3640125 produced 22,347 pounds of milk and 817 pounds of butterfat as a four-year-old and Palo Duro Princess Margaret 4021052 produced 16,507 pounds of milk and 691 pounds of butterfat as a two-year-old.

Milked twice daily for 352 days, Tierra Blanca Imperial Molly 3724896 produced 14,379 pounds of milk and 550 pounds of butterfat.

Milked twice daily for 334 days, Tierra Blanca Walker Girl 3724895 produced 18,243 pounds of milk and 704 pounds of butterfat as a five-year-old.

Texas A&M College, working in close cooperation with the national Holstein organization, supervised the weighing and testing of production as a part of the Herd Improvement Registry program.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McGehee, Jack, and Mrs. Aline Watson have just returned from attending a family reunion of Mrs. McGehee's family at her childhood home in the Ozark mountains of Missouri. Over 150 relatives gathered from several different states. The McGehees report a very enjoyable trip and visit.

Pulling strings is about as usual these days as getting a haircut. Anyone who knows anyone in a key position considers that person fair game to seek favors of, for himself or a friend.

The seeker doesn't have to be a bad fellow to do this without a prick of conscience. He simply thinks of it as good management. Maybe he has a friend who has a friend in the electrical appliance business. So our ordinary fellow asks his friend to try and get him a discount on a new electric stove. If this can be arranged, he feels that he has been a clever manager; not that he has knocked someone who owes him absolutely nothing out of a legitimate commission.

Perhaps the greatest victims of this string-pulling game are politicians. Just any lowdown dog from a politician's constituency can request a favor, and the guy just about has to go along provided the request isn't absolutely crooked. Who knows? This fellow from back home may be the brother of Mrs. V-I-P; or a big dog in the local labor union. The politician never knows where his votes are coming from — or going to, if he snubs a sensitive voter.

The greatest irony of all this is that the original meaning of pulling strings has turned a somersault. The saying comes from the field of puppetry, where the master pulls the strings to make the doll dance his tune. But in our society, the puppet becomes the master. It is he who calls the tune, and if the man to whose hands the strings lead doesn't dance just right, he gets tangled up in the mechanism.

Mrs. Ross Campbell was a guest in the Ben Fortner home in the Arney community.

Visiting in the Al Schoenenberger home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John Schoenenberger of Canyon.

Too many people waste half their time finding ways to waste the other half.

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS OF THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Educational TV

All over the country steps are being taken in various forms to implement the medium of television for educational purposes. This is, I believe, a grand significant move forward and is certainly a wonderful use of the media. Educational television is gaining prominence and growing for two primary reasons—the almost unlimited audience which can utilize a televised classroom, and the growing realization of the people of an ever-increasing need for a broader education.

The television industry has advanced to the stature of a giant in a shorter time than any other comparable new facet of our economy on the American scene throughout history. The possibilities of its utilization for disseminating education have been recognized for a long time, but the actual establishment of specific television classrooms has met with considerable obstacles, prime of which have been the financing of construction and maintenance facilities. Unlike commercial television, few were able or willing to foot the bill for educational television.

When the Federal Communications Commission issued the original television allocations plan in 1952, it set aside 242 (256 today) television channels for the exclusive use of non-commercial, educational stations. Today 12.7 per cent of the VHF channels and 11.3 per cent of the UHF channels are reserved for non-commercial, educational purposes.

Of these, 18 are reserved for Texas, one of which is for Amarillo, and one for Lubbock. In the six years FCC reserved approximately 12 per cent of all television channels for this purpose, only 56 educational stations are today serving an area of more than 50 million people, from Massachusetts to California, and from Minnesota to Texas.

The failure to use these reserved channels is not the result of lack of interest. Numerous problems must be met in activating the channels, and it has been necessary in most local situations to organize different segments of the community—civic, cultural and educational—to bring about operation of these educational stations. In many cases the problems of fund-raising resulted in long delays.

The big problem facing American educators who would certainly like to utilize television for educational purposes is the lack of funds to pay for the basic installation of the television facilities and stations. Experience has demonstrated that once a television station has been built, state legislatures, local educational systems, and local communities at large have raised funds to produce the programs over these stations.

Outstanding program service has been provided in many communities with relatively limited funds. The one main problem, then, is to secure the basic funds to build the station in the first place.

Remarkable progress has been made in establishing the stations now operating and current experimentation reveals unlimited potentialities for the future of educational television.

A division of the Ford Foundation—the Fund for Advancement of Education—has instituted a nationwide course on television in conjunction with one of the networks which, as many of you know, is being televised in the Panhandle. This course deals with nuclear physics and has, I understand, the benefit of some of the best teaching talent available on the subject.

In Washington, D. C. metropolitan area, educational television commenced last month on the elementary school level and some 30,000 pupils in the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades now attend television science class twice a week right in their own classrooms.

Colleges, secondary schools, communities and organizations of every kind all over the United States are realizing, and beginning to take advantage of the great use which can be made of this medium. I believe it is a good new step and one which will bring inestimable benefits to our society.

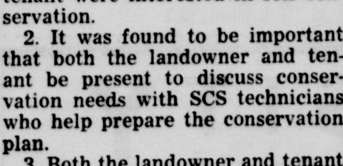
SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS



The supervisors of the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District suggest that you consider the following report made by the Extension Service on 27 tenant-operated farms. All of these farms were cooperating with their local soil conservation district.

All farms studied had one-third and one-fourth crop-share agreements, and some also had livestock share agreements.

Each farm was scored according to soil and water conservation practices being used. More weight was given such permanent type practices as terracing, pond construction and waterway development.

Both landowners and tenants were interviewed to determine what affected the conservation scores; Ten high, ten average and seven low.

Here are some of the things found that determined the amount of conservation being practiced.

1. Much more was accomplished when both the landowner and tenant were interested in soil conservation.
2. It was found to be important that both the landowner and tenant be present to discuss conservation needs with SCS technicians who help prepare the conservation plan.
3. Both the landowner and tenant need to refer often to their district agreement and conservation plan.
4. Better results came from the tenant contacting the ASC and the SCS directly, instead of leaving it to the landowner.
5. More was accomplished on farms where the land owner had additional income and furnished conservation equipment.
6. If the tenant had a written agreement with the landowner for more than one year, he was more likely to carry out conservation practices.
7. Conservation scores were higher on farms that had livestock-share agreements.
8. When costs of practices were shared between the tenant and landowner in proportion to returns, more conservation practices were completed.

The Soil Conservation Service technicians serving the Randall-Potter SCD will work with either the landowner or tenant on conservation practices for their land, but prefer to work with both.

"When are you going to call the SCS for assistance in making a conservation plan for your land?" asks J. W. Spencer, chairman of the board of supervisors.

It's true that all things come to those who wait—on themselves.

Canyon Teachers Attend Meeting

Twelve school leaders from Canyon, Amarillo, and Hereford attended the three-day meeting of the Texas Conference on Teacher Education, which opened Sunday in Mineral Wells.

The annual meeting attracts administrators from public schools and colleges of the state, and this year dealt with cooperation in the improvement of teacher education.

Among those attending were Joe A. Gibson and Rex Reeves, Canyon, R. A. Selby, Miss Ida Lee Cope, Mrs. Emily Springer, and Howard Amick of Amarillo, Fred Cunningham and Bill Phillips of Hereford.

From West Texas State College were Dr. Emmitt Smith, director of teacher education, Dr. J. B. Roberts, head of the education department, Dr. Fred Stoker, associate professor of education, and Bob Griffin, assistant professor of business.

Panel Is Slated For AAUW Meet

The Canyon Branch of the American Association of University Women will meet at 7:30 Saturday evening in the Branding Iron Theatre for a symposium on municipal government.

The public is invited.

Chairman and moderator will be Bob Wear, minister of the Central Church of Christ. Other members of the discussion group will be Dr. Lowell Harrison, A. W. Lair, Dr. Crannell Tolliver and Bill Cherry.

These men, acting as a Chamber of Commerce committee, have made a special study of different forms of city government, a subject important to every Canyon citizen at this time because Canyon is now large enough, under state laws, to determine its own form of government.

The commission type, required for towns of small population, can now be changed to home rule or city manager type. The characteristics and advantages of these government types will be discussed by the panel so Canyon citizens may be informed of their rights and privileges.

This will be the regular monthly meeting of the AAUW, taking the place of the usual noon meeting and the members are asked to urge their friends to come to this open meeting.

Mrs. Boyce Honored By Birthday Dinner

Mrs. Mary Boyce was honored Sunday with a surprise birthday dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Boyce.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Glenn and family, Mrs. Shirley Glandon and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Brock, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hennington and daughter, Carol, all of Canyon, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl May of Silverton and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bragg of Jacksboro.

Deadline Named For TV Course

Deadline for enrollment in the state's television project to recruit additional teachers, telecast weekly by KGNC-TV in Amarillo, is Nov. 15.

The programs, called "Texas Curriculum Studies," are designed to enable college graduates, who do not have teachers' certificates, to earn a provisional certificate by watching the shows, reading a textbook, and taking two examinations.

West Texas State College and KGNC-TV are cooperating in the project, and the programs are shown each Saturday at 8 a. m. Information about program schedules and procedures for enrollment is available from Dr. Emmitt Smith, director of teacher education at WT.

Any graduate of a four-year accredited college is eligible to enroll. After completing the course, a participant will be issued a Texas teaching permit for 1959-60 and renewable for two additional years.

"Texas Curriculum Studies" is the same series of programs which will be viewed throughout the year by teachers and superintendents in a state-wide project of curriculum study and school improvement.

Organize New Club For Fairview

A Tongue Thimble Club will replace the Fairview Home Demonstration Club.

Members of the Fairview group met in the home of Mrs. Charles Sutton Oct. 17 and voted to disband. In its place, the ladies organized a club in which each member brings something of interest to other members.

The club will meet on the first and third Thursday of each month, with Mrs. Charles Wilson as president and Mrs. J. W. Wesley as secretary.

Everyone is invited to attend. The first meeting will be with Mrs. Wesley Nov. 6 at 2:30 p.m.

The modern theory seems to be that a dollar saved is just a good time lost.

Association Seeks Mailing Addresses

More names have been released by Dreamland Cemetery Association in its attempt to locate cemetery property owners for whom no address is known. Anyone with information about these people is asked to call Warren-LaGrone Funeral Chapel, managers for the association.

Plan Social For ENMU Cast

Two dramatics organizations at West Texas State College will entertain the cast of "The Silver Whistle" at a post-performance buffet supper Friday in the Branding Iron Theatre.

The play, by a cast from Eastern New Mexico University, will be given in the Amarillo Little Theatre Friday night, as part of the Southwest Theatre Conference.

WT's Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics fraternity, and Buffalo Masquers, campus club, will honor the ENMU group at the supper.

Visiting in Canyon were H. F. Bragg and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bragg and daughter, Dorothy, all of Jacksboro. Mrs. Bragg is a sister of Mrs. Mary Boyce and Mrs. J. W. Hennington.

Visiting in the Friona home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Drake were Mrs. Treva Reece, Ted Reece, Janet and Kay Reece, all of Canyon.

The Rev. Charles Pierce delivered two fine sermons Sunday.

Those enjoying games of "88" in the G. E. Wesley home Tuesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Pool and children of Vann, N. M., visited Sunday with Mrs. Pool's parents, the Charles Suttons.

Mrs. Gordon Foster was shopping in Amarillo Tuesday.

Johnna Sue Pool and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Collier were guests at church Sunday. It was a misty and cool day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wesley and Mr. and Mrs. Rley Eudy and daughter, Rosa, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wesley of Canyon.

Almost everyone from this vicinity attended the football game between Happy and Friona in Happy Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wesley and Susie visited Mrs. Wesley's parents at Goldthwaite over the weekend.

The Bird family had a family reunion in the J. W. Bird home Oct. 12. The Brown Bird family was here for the occasion. Brown was taking his mother home with him for a visit.

Jimmy Wesley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wesley, and Jerry Eudy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Eudy, are both in Korea.

Mrs. Gordon Foster entered the hospital Sunday evening prior to X-rays Monday.

Self-made men should be more careful in selecting the materials they use.
